
Reggae boyz

The reggae boyz' match last week was disappointing with regards to the score line but they had some good points. The goals were good goals and the transition from midfield to front line was good for the most part but the defending is letting us down once again. I think Jamaica has a good chance of reaching the world cup providing they don't rely too much on the local based players.

Jamaica just beat St. Vincent 5-1. The performance wasn't bad at all. However, St. Vincent shouldn't have scored.

Jamaica just managed to eek out a 1-1 draw after a 89th minute penalty. Rene must have been sweating on the sidelines.
