

SuperClubs Answers Summer Travel Demand With Four-Day Sale

Tuesday, 09 June 2009

On the heels of its wildly popular five-day "Super Summer Stimulus" sale last week, SuperClubs Resorts is launching a four-day "Encore Sale" at 10 Jamaica, Bahamas and Curaçao resorts. Following the previous promotion's success -- which produced over 1000 bookings, 65 percent of which were from agents, SuperClubs is offering clients up to 50 percent off regular prices on summer stays if they book their Caribbean vacations June 9 - 12, for travel through September 30, 2009. Clients have to act fast to grab rates starting as low as $67 per room per night.

Travelers to Breezes Montego Bay, located in the heart of the action on both MoBay's Hip Strip and on Doctor's Cave Beach in Jamaica, will enjoy 50 percent off savings, with prices from just $69 per person per night. Additional Breezes properties in the offing are Breezes Runaway Bay Resort, Breezes Bahamas and Breezes Curaçao.

Also included in the "Encore Sale" are Jamaica's AAA Four Diamond Grand Lido Resorts & Spas and adults-only Hedonism Resorts. All of these Super-Inclusive properties include accommodations, all meals, snacks and premium alcoholic beverages, land and water sports, entertainment, airport transfers, hotel taxes, and even tips.

Those seeking incredible prices on Continental Plan (CP) hotels should look to SuperClubs' two affiliated ROOMS properties in Jamaica, which feature rates starting at $67 per room, per night including hotel taxes and continental breakfast. Easily accessible, the hotels are within walking distance to local restaurants, boutiques, and gift shops.

To take advantage of the four-day "Encore Sale," your all inclusive vacation package must be booked June 9 - 12 for travel through September 30, 2009. A five-night minimum stay is required, except for Breezes Bahamas, Breezes Montego Bay and the ROOMS resorts, which have a four-night minimum. Savings vary by resort and blackout dates apply.
